The Eastern States Exposition has been designated as the Northeast Fall National Holstein Show for 2008 by the Holstein Association Board of Directors. For the Junior Show, the show has been designated as the Northeast Fall Junior Holstein Show. 2008 marks the return of National status to the open show at Eastern States Exposition.

Premiums for the Show have increased to benefit our exhibitors.

The Pineland Futurity, started in 2006, will also be run again in 2008. The event is held in cooperation with the New England Holstein Association and Eastern States Exposition. The futurity is open to any and all nominees, with no limitations on the numbers of nominees from any exhibitor. For more information contact neholstein@comcast.net.

Premier Breeder awards will again be, 1st Place $500 and a banner; 2nd place - $300; 3rd place - $200. These awards are supported through the New England Holstein Association and other sponsors.

Holstein Dairy Schedule is as follows:

Sep. 7 (Sunday) Barns open 4-9pm
Sep. 10 (Wednesday) Cattle must be moved in by noon
Sep. 12 (Friday) 9am Holstein Show (those going to Harrisburg will be allowed to leave upon completion of the show)

Premium books will be available online May 15 at www.thebige.com/agriculture/index/html.
