Saturday, October 28, 2023

11:30 AM Brigeen Farms - Open House & Social.
278 Upper Street, Turner Maine 04282

Established in 1777, ten generations of the Briggs family have farmed at this site. Today, the farm is operated by Steve, Mary and Vivian Briggs and Bill and Betsy Bullard. Brigeen Farms currently milk 500 cows in a sand-bedded freestall facility with a RHA of more than 31,000 Milk. In 2019, the family established Canty Cow Creamery, an on-farm micro creamery serving delicious frozen custard. Join us at this Open House to learn more about the farm, enjoy lunch served by Getting' Sauced food truck on-site and a frozen custard as well.

Following the Open House, attendees can travel 15 minutes to the hotel, Hilton Garden Inn Auburn, Riverwatch, Auburn, Maine. The afternoon programs will be held in the Ballroom at the hotel.

2:00 PM New England Junior Meeting and Competitions

Silent Auction Items Needed!

The annual Silent Auction is an important fundraiser for youth programs and awards, including Quiz Bowl, Dairy Jeopardy, Prepared Public Speaking, and Distinguished Junior Member recognitions.

Please help support our Juniors by donating a craft item, cow or farm novelty, antique or specialty food product for the Silent Auction.

This year, the auction will be open Saturday afternoon at the hotel and bidding will continue on Sunday morning. The silent auction will close during the Awards Luncheon.
