

NEW ENGLAND STATES
LEE SALONEN OUTSTANDING HOLSTEIN JUNIOR EXHIBITOR AWARD

Lee Salonen and Chris Kimball present the first award in 2015 to Maggie Kirby of Vermont.

The New England States Holstein Association is proud to announce the 7th annual Lee Salonen Outstanding Holstein Junior Exhibitor Award. This award recognizes New England Junior Holstein Exhibitors for their efforts and interest in all aspects of the Holstein industry. Recipients of this award have a high level of participation in junior programs, excel in herdsmanship, are knowledgeable of their cattle, have demonstrated leadership qualities, and have a sustained commitment to the industry.

Lee Salonen was a member of the New England States Holstein Association for 56 years. He rendered tireless service on the board for 33 years in nearly every leadership position including President, Vice-President, Treasurer, Assistant Treasurer, Finance Chair and Finance Chair for the 2005 National Holstein Convention hosted by the New England States Holstein Association. Lee was also a recipient of the New England Association's prestigious Distinguished Service award. Providing opportunities for youth to grow within the industry was the cornerstone of Lee's leadership philosophy.
